Press Release

Jersey City Employment and Training Program (JCETP) Sponsoring Open House Recruitment Session Held by RGIS, World's Largest Inventory Service

Jersey City Employment and Training Program (JCETP) will sponsor a recruitment session on Thursday, held by RGIS, the world's largest inventory service. RGIS has immediate openings for part-time hourly inventory takers for local and major retailers throughout northern New Jersey and surrounding communities.

JCETP is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) that provides employment workshops and outreach services. The RGIS recruitment session is open to all, including current clients of the JCETP program. RGIS is an equal opportunity employer with over 20,000 employees in more than 170 offices around the United States.

The reentry population served by JCETP has a job attainment rate of 60% and the program has been recognized by the National Institute of Justice "as being at the forefront of the reentry field." Thursday's open house will provide recruitment services for all who are in attendance regardless of court involvement.

RGIS's employment opportunities start at $9.25/hr. Employees are also offered flexible schedules, paid training, a health plan after 90 days, shopping discounts, and advancement opportunities. Positions are available for regular, part-time work. Job seekers must be 18 years or older, have access to reliable transportation, and are asked to bring their Social Security Card, photo I.D. and resume to the event. Applicants are requested to RSVP for the event at <http://bit.ly/RGISHiringJC>
